	Yes	No	Don't know
Do you think that teachers and pupils should work together with other schools so that pupils can learn a wide range of things?
Do you think that pupils should be able to use areas, such as playing fields and halls, at other schools, if these are better than those at their own school?
Do you think that schools should use computers more than they do now?
Do you think that school buildings should be open before and after the school day and during holidays?
Do you think that all schools should get good results?
Do you think that pupils of all abilities should go to the same schools?
Do you think that Infant and junior pupils should go to the same school?
Do you think it would work if infant, junior and secondary pupils all went to school on the same site?
What size do you think would be best for a primary school?
What size do you think would be best for a secondary school?
